Welcome to the Annual
Aegean Masters' Meeting.

The DHI Medical Group invites you to attend a unique interactive and informative global congress, presenting the latest developments of DHI Techniques and services.

Participants will be introduced to the DHI TOTAL CARE SYSTEM and the DIRECT IMPLANTATION TECHNIQUE, the most advanced hair restoration System ever developed.

Discover how easy it is to provide DHI services at your own clinic.

We are looking forward to your attendance.

Best regards,
K.P. Giotis
Aegean Master Meeting's President

DHI Group Chairman

As DHI Medical Group Founder, Mr. K.P. Giotis has been exclusively engaged in the field of hair restoration since 1970. His DHI Medical Group has grown to become one of the largest organizations internationally for medical hair restoration. Mr. Giotis is a member of the American Society of Cosmetic Surgery, the founder of The International Hair Society (IHS) and has spoken at numerous medical and non-medical Forums. Mr. Giotis has published papers in The Hair Transplant Forum and other respected medical journals and holds several patents on its hair implanter and method by leading an international team in the Research and Development field of 'hair multiplication' and 'body hair transplantation'.

A recent article by renowned hair restoration surgeon Dr. Walter Unger, in The Journal of Dermatology, listed Mr. Giotis as one of the pioneers of the field worldwide.

In spring 2009, Mr. Giotis was awarded a diploma by the University of South Lyon in France, after teaching in the course entitled "restorative scalp surgery".

Mr. Giotis was a faculty member at the ISHRS meeting in Amsterdam, July 2009. His presentation entitled "The Psychological Aspects of Hair Loss" was well received by an audience of over 600 doctors from around the world.

Mr. Giotis was congratulated for his presentation by the ISHRS President Dr. William Parsely USA and by the Meeting President Dr. Ken Washenic USA.

In addition Dr. Carlos Pulg USA congratulated Mr. Giotis on investigating and researching a vital and little known issue of Hair Restoration. As a result Mr. Giotis has been invited by Dr. Paco Himenez (editor of the Hair Transplantation Forum) to present the latest DHI techniques and services to the Hair Transplant Forum.

Mr. Giotis is the inventor of several techniques, including the No Touch, Direct Hair Implantation and the latest diagnostic DHI System.

DHI Group Medical Director

Dr. Anastasios Vekris is a plastic surgeon focused on hair reconstruction and restoration. He is registered with the Specialist Registry of the GMC (General Medical Council) in UK, the HESPRAS (Hellenic Society of Plastic, Reconstructive & Aesthetic Surgery) in Greece and the Kuwait Medical Authority. He has performed hundreds of hair restoration procedures with the DHI Medical Group in many countries, including Greece, UK, France, Kuwait, and Cyprus. He is an expert reconstructive micro-surgeon and a master hair restoration surgeon. Dr. Vekris is also the chief surgeon of the Academy@DHI. As a DHI client himself, he is able to offer clients both a medical and patient perspective.

DHI Group Medical Director

Professor J.C. Kim, MD, PhD is affiliated with The Hair Laboratory and Immunology Department, at Kyungpook National University in Seoul, Korea.

He is the leading international scientist in the research of hair follicle cloning and DNA testing. His work focuses on identifying the specific genes responsible for hair loss.

DHI Northern California,
Clinic Director

The son of DHI Founder and Chairman, Mr. Giotis has been involved in every facet of DHI since childhood. He has worked for DHI in Athens, London, Paris and in the US, in various capacities such as copywriter, scientific conference coordinator, assistant Operations Manager, medical assistant, Total Care Consultant, and Marketing Director. He is now DHI Group Vice President of Operations and the Director of DHI of Northern California.

DHI Athens, Greece
Member of DHI Certified
Medical Team

Dr. Elza Bankovska, specialized Dermatologist, has been an active member of the DHI Certified Medical team for over 7 years and has performed around 1000 sessions of hair loss restoration. Her experience involves treatment of a wide range of different types of Alopecia in both male and female cases. Dr. Bankovska participates in the DHI Vision of expansion in all DHI Centers worldwide and is also a member of the DHI Training and Research Department.

DHI Athens,
Member of DHI Training and
Research Dept.

Dr. Georgia Ligda is a plastic surgeon specialized in aesthetic plastic surgery. She had her PhD from the University of Athens and she is a member of HESPRAS since 2002. She is a certified DHI doctor for Hair Restoration and the Medical Director of DHI Athens Clinic, responsible for the quality control in the Medical Department.
